

Special Issue

Sustainable Energy: Economy & Policy in Europe

Message from the Guest Editor

The Special Issue aims to highlight the challenges of sustainable development. It is, therefore, focused on how the concepts, instruments, and tools have been utilized in sustainable energy sectors' transition process. Topics of interest for publication include, but are not limited to:

- Sustainable energy from economics, finance, accounting, policy and legal perspective;
- Renewable energy;
- Sustainable finance;
- Sustainable development in energy sectors;
- Economy transformation towards sustainable energy;
- Financial market support for sustainable energy transformation;
- Corporate adaptability towards climate-neutral economy transition;
- Public policies concerning sustainable energy;
- Public finance assistance in transformation process towards sustainable energy

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Editor-in-Chief
