

Special Issue

New Insights into Energy Economics and Sustainable Development

Message from the Guest Editor

This special issue is attended to attract submissions related to energy systems, energy policy, and environmental pollution. Both theoretical models and application works are welcome. Specific topics include but are not restricted to the list below:

- Reliability of energy systems
- Energy system maintenance
- Energy system optimization
- Energy efficiency
- Green energy
- Carbon tax
- Sustainable economy
- Pollution control
- Global warming
- Energy storage
- Materials for renewable and sustainable energy
- Nexus of energy-water in urban system
- Urban emissions mitigation
- Energy management, policy, and economics
- Distributed energy systems
- Climate change and policy options targeting low-carbon energy systems
- Negative emission technologies
- Integrated energy networks and microgrids
- Low carbon and ecological city indicator

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Editor-in-Chief
