

Special Issue

Internet of Things and Smart Environments

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue will pay special attention to all the energy related aspects making the concepts of the Internet of Things and Smart Environments a viable reality. Topics of interest for publication include, but are not limited to:

- IoT architecture and trends
- Efficient network communication protocols for smart objects
- Energy aware on sensor computing platforms
- Energy harvesting
- Low energy machine learning algorithms
- Energy aware data compression
- Sources of energy for the IoT
- Energy aware security mechanism
- Green IoT
- Low energy sensors
- Energy based collaboration computing platforms
- Trends and architectures
- Batteries' technologies for an IoT

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Enrico Sciubba
Department of Mechanical and Industrial Engineering, University
Niccolò Cusano, 00166 Roma, Italy

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, RePEc, Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

CiteScore - Q1 (Control and Optimization)
