

Special Issue

Hollow Fiber Membranes 2021

Message from the Guest Editor

The Special Issue will also seriously consider the challenges and future research directions. Considering your extensive knowledge and experience in this field, I would like to invite you to contribute original research articles, as well as review articles, to this Special Issue, which will increase the basic and cutting-edge subject knowledge on hollow fibers, and may lead to the development of new technologies and innovations for their efficient and economic utilization.

- Hollow fiber membranes (HFMs)
- Advanced materials for HFMs
- Applications of HFMs
- Designing and fabrication of improved HFMs
- Novel nanomaterials enabled HFMs

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Fibers is intended as an integrative platform, bringing together specialists with expertise concerning a large range of biological, synthetic, metallic and mineral fibers. The intent is to bring together scientists who would otherwise be unlikely to encounter each other's findings. By facilitating communication across specialties, the journal will advance understanding of the underlying commonality of many physical and chemical aspects of fibers.

We welcome submission of manuscripts from a diverse range of disciplines relating to many types of fibers utilizing a variety of research approaches.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, ESCI (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, PubAg, CAPlus / SciFinder, Inspec, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Materials Science, Multidisciplinary) / CiteScore - Q1 (Civil and Structural Engineering)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 23.3 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 5.8 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
