Food Polysaccharides, Starch, and Protein: Processing, Characterization, and Health Benefits

Message from the Guest Editors

The Special Issue will cover the following scientific topics: Physicochemical and functional properties of native polysaccharides, starch, protein, pectin, and fiber;

- Food processing technologies for polysaccharides, and starch, protein, pectin, and fiber;
- Modification and application of polysaccharides, and starch, protein, pectin, and fiber;
- Structure and functional properties changes in natural components during modification;
- Processing–structure–function relationship of natural components during modification;
- Future industry of polysaccharides, starch, protein, pectin, and fiber;
- Novel natural bioactive food carbohydrates, protein, and their prospective applications;
- Any topics that are deemed relevant to the main scope of this Special Issue.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Foods (ISSN 2304-8158) is an open access and peer reviewed scientific journal that publishes original articles, critical reviews, case reports, and short communications on food science. Articles are released monthly online, with unlimited free access. Currently, Foods has been indexed by the Science Citation Index Expanded (SCIE - Web of Science), PubMed, and Scopus. Our aim is to encourage scientists, researchers, and other food professionals to publish their experimental and theoretical results as much detail as possible. We therefore invite you to be one of our authors, and in doing so share your important research findings with the global food science community.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, FSTA, AGRIS, PubAg, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q1 (Food Science and Technology) / CiteScore - Q1 (Health Professions (miscellaneous))

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 15 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.6 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2025).
