Special Issue

Mycotoxins as Food Contaminants: Detection, Prevalence and Safety Assessment

Message from the Guest Editors

We invite submissions of high-quality original research articles, reviews, and short communications that have not been previously published for this Special Issue. This Special Issue will focus on methodologies for the detection of mycotoxins and mycotoxigenic moulds, their prevalence in various raw materials and food products, and the factors influencing these aspects. Additionally, it will focus on dietary exposure assessments and risk evaluation processes that are necessary to determine whether the prevalence of mycotoxins poses a health risk for consumers.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Foods (ISSN 2304-8158) is an open access and peer reviewed scientific journal that publishes original articles, critical reviews, case reports, and short communications on food science. Articles are released monthly online, with unlimited free access. Currently, Foods has been indexed by the Science Citation Index Expanded (SCIE - Web of Science), PubMed, and Scopus. Our aim is to encourage scientists, researchers, and other food professionals to publish their experimental and theoretical results as much detail as possible. We therefore invite you to be one of our authors, and in doing so share your important research findings with the global food science community.
