

Special Issue

Wood and Flavor

Message from the Guest Editor

The aim and scope of the Special Issue on Wood and Flavor are to provide a forum for the exchange of information on new and significant research in viticulture, enology, and related fields, in particular, on the influence of wood in the flavor of certain beverages around the world. This includes research or technical papers presenting new and topical information in viticulture, enology, and the related fields. Additionally, review articles are encouraged, as they provide excellent summaries of the research areas to our research and practitioner readers. Keywords

- Trees and wood
- Wood taste
- Wood aroma
- Quercus spp.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Forests (ISSN 1999-4907) is an international and cross-disciplinary, scholarly forestry journal. The distinguished editorial board and refereeing process ensures the highest degree of scientific rigor and review of all published articles. Original research articles and timely reviews are released online, with unlimited free access. Our goal is to have Forests be recognized as one of the foremost publication outlets for high quality, leading edge research in this broad and diverse field. We therefore invite you to be one of our authors, and in doing so share your important research findings with the global forestry community.
