

Special Issue

Forest Ecosystem Services and Strategy Development

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue of Forests on Forest Ecosystem Services and Strategy Development aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of the importance of forest ecosystem services and how they can be integrated into forest management strategies. This Issue covers topics such as the assessment of forest ecosystem services, the economic valuation of forest services, the role of forests in mitigating climate change, and the development of sustainable forest management strategies that prioritize ecosystem services. The contributions to this Special Issue must highlight the need for a holistic approach to forest management that considers the multiple benefits that forests provide to society and the environment.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Forests (ISSN 1999-4907) is an international and cross-disciplinary, scholarly forestry journal. The distinguished editorial board and refereeing process ensures the highest degree of scientific rigor and review of all published articles. Original research articles and timely reviews are released online, with unlimited free access. Our goal is to have Forests be recognized as one of the foremost publication outlets for high quality, leading edge research in this broad and diverse field. We therefore invite you to be one of our authors, and in doing so share your important research findings with the global forestry community.
