

Special Issue

At the Frontiers of Knowledge in Forest Economics

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue offers a compilation of articles that aims to delineate the current state-of-knowledge on forest economics. Articles also set out a roadmap for how the extant knowledge frontier needs to be expanded—particularly within some of the most pressing issues affecting forest resources. In aggregate, this Special Issue stresses the role that economics applied to forests and its multiple functions and resources have toward achieving sustainable outcomes.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Forests (ISSN 1999-4907) is an international and cross-disciplinary, scholarly forestry journal. The distinguished editorial board and refereeing process ensures the highest degree of scientific rigor and review of all published articles. Original research articles and timely reviews are released online, with unlimited free access. Our goal is to have Forests be recognized as one of the foremost publication outlets for high quality, leading edge research in this broad and diverse field. We therefore invite you to be one of our authors, and in doing so share your important research findings with the global forestry community.
