

Special Issue

Fractional Dynamics and Control in Multi-Agent Systems and Networks

Message from the Guest Editors

The focus of this Special Issue is to advance research on topics relating to modeling, dynamic analysis, and the control and application of fractional-order MASs or CNs, including their theory, design, implementation, and application. Topics that are invited for submission include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Theory and implementation of fractional-order MASs and CNs;
- Dynamics analysis of fractional-order MASs and CNs;
- Distributed cooperative control of fractional-order MASs and CNs;
- Distributed optimization of fractional-order MASs and CNs;
- Secure consensus or synchronization of fractional-order MASs or CNs under cyber attacks;
- Applications of fractional-order MASs and CNs.
