Selected Papers from 1st International Conference on Control of Intelligent Systems and Devices (IC2ISD'20)

Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this Special Issue is to collect papers related to the recent advances and challenges in the field of the intelligent control systems and devices.

These represent key issues in the implementation of Industry 4.0 and in fields such as robotics, bio-inspired systems, smart grids, smart cities, smart houses, and precise agriculture.

The control of such systems is a very challenging task and requires the integration of classical and innovative methodologies.

Both theoretical and application-oriented papers on various aspects of conventional and intelligent control, intelligent systems and devices, computational intelligence, data analysis, uncertainty, sensing and data processing, diagnostic and prognostic, process monitoring, and cyber-physical systems are invited.
