The Balkans in Heraldry— Emergence, Development, Future

Message from the Guest Editor

As an active scholar in this field, you are invited to submit a proposal for an article of interest to the academic and interest-group communities worldwide. The topic is heraldry in the Balkans. Heraldry is understood in its broader meaning, personal, municipal, state, military, ecclesial, etc., and so is the Balkans. The aim is to present heraldry that takes forms other than those of the “traditional heraldic lands”. As heraldry is intertwined with genealogy, also articles connecting heraldry with wider genealogical issues, such as genealogical and status continuity, are accepted. Bearing in mind that this publication will reach a different audience from those who attend heraldic conferences or read the literature produced by Heraldic Societies, etc., there is an opportunity to expand the scope away from the more traditional targets.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Genealogy is a scholarly journal that provides a venue for academic, cutting-edge contributions to the interdisciplinary field of genealogy studies. We welcome contributions that examine genealogies of family lineage, use genealogical considerations and methods in examining other historical processes (including migration histories, personal, social, and national identities, and social institutions) or study the construction of genealogical narratives. The journal is also interested in biographical studies and their contribution to the understanding of broader social and historical phenomena.
