Featured Papers in Geoheritage, Geoparks and Geotourism

Message from the Guest Editor

The journal Geosciences would like to compile a collection of papers to report on the advancements in the field Geoheritage, Geoparks and Geotourism. The aim of this Special Issue, entitled Featured Papers in Geoheritage, Geoparks and Geotourism, is to make relevant work known to our colleagues in the field. To achieve this, the Special Issue, edited by , invites scientists to submit research articles, review articles, and short communications focused on this topic. We look forward to your valued contributions to make this Special Issue a reference resource for future researchers in the field of Geoheritage, Geoparks and Geotourism.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Understanding the Earth's origin and its bio-geological evolution, the multiple implications of the geosciences (as a coherent set of interconnected disciplines), and the sociocultural and ethical interdisciplinary approaches, will be crucial for a better understanding of Nature, and also for undertaking scientifically based political decisions.

We are committed to drive Geosciences to a position in which it is recognized for its high-quality, cutting-edge research and scientific influence, and strongly encourage and invite your participation and manuscripts.
