Selected Papers from "Euro-Global Climate Change Conference"

Message from the Guest Editors

Magnus Group announces with great pride and honour its "Euro-Global Climate Change Conference (EGCCC 2020)", which is going to be held in Paris, France on 18-19 September 2020. The objective of Climate Change Conference 2020 is to provide attendees with a comprehensive overview and up-to-date advances in climate change research. The EGCCC 2020 Paris motto is to describe the importance of the ecosystem and its relationship with human beings. In this conference. scientists discuss different types of human activities that influence our ecosystem. This conference edifies us with novel essential technologies to protect the ecosystem from climate change and global warming. In Climate Change Conferences, researchers are going to analyse and help us in understanding the reasons for the ecosystem's destruction and provide us with the necessary solutions to protect it. More information about the conference can be found at https://magnusconferences.com/climate-change/

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Understanding the Earth's origin and its bio-geological evolution, the multiple implications of the geosciences (as a coherentset of interconnected disciplines), and the sociocultural and ethical interdisciplinary approaches, will be crucial for a better understanding of Nature, and also for undertaking scientificallybased political decisions.

We are committed to drive Geosciences to a position in which it is recognized for its high-quality, cutting-edge research and scientific influence, and strongly encourage and invite your participation and manuscripts.
