Care, Connection and Equity: Advancing the Science of Caregiving in Aging

Message from the Guest Editor

Care, Connection and Equity: Advancing the Science of Caregiving in Aging seeks submissions that explore the evolving landscape of caregiving for older adults. We welcome research, practice and policy-focused papers that highlight the experiences of caregivers, strategies to promote caregiver wellbeing and innovative interventions that foster equitable and culturally responsive care. Contributions that examine relational connections, systemic support and approaches to sustain caregivers across diverse settings are encouraged. We particularly invite work that integrate perspectives from researchers, practitioners, policymakers and caregivers themselves to advance inclusive, evidence-informed and relationship-centered caregiving.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Our new journal is launched to serve geriatrics specialists and colleagues from other disciplines as an interface between theory and clinical practice. Pushing the boundaries of the discipline, I kindly invite you to consider publishing your current work in Geriatrics. We have chosen the format of an open access journal to provide all interested parties with a platform for their basic research and health care studies as well. For details on the submission process or any other matter, please visit the journal website. I hope to handle your contribution to Geriatrics soon to publish innovative, relevant, thought provoking ideas.
