The 10th Anniversary of Healthcare—Medication Management

Message from the Guest Editor

In 2023, we will celebrate the 10th anniversary volume of the journal Healthcare (ISSN 2227-9032). To commemorate this significant milestone, we are launching a Special Issue entitled "The 10th Anniversary of Healthcare—Medication Management." It is our pleasure to invite you to submit an original research paper or a comprehensive review article for peer review and possible publication in this Special Issue of Healthcare. This Special Issue focuses on the complex and interrelated topics related to the pharmaceutical sector and medication management, including drug regulation, selection, utilization, health outcomes, reimbursement, and drug access and affordability. The articles will explore the factors that shape drug approval, selection and utilization, as well as the impact of these factors on patient outcomes.

- drugs and biologics
- regulatory agencies
- pharmaceutical industry
- generic and biosimilar drugs
- pharmacoconomics and health technology assessment
- reimbursement
