

Special Issue

Social Determinants of Health Disparities and Inequities in Reproductive and Maternal Health

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue of Healthcare seeks commentaries, original research, short reports, and reviews addressing topics related to the SDHs and health disparities in reproductive and maternal health in LMICs. This Special Issue aims to provide an updated panorama of the current situation in relation to the persistent gaps in coverage, health services use, and quality of care between socially disadvantaged and socially privileged individuals with regard to reproductive and maternal health needs. Topics of interest include:

- modern contraception utilization and coverage;
- antenatal/post-natal health services coverage and quality;
- access to safe abortions;
- maternal morbidity/mortality;
- funding for family planning and maternal health programs;
- national policies addressing reproductive and maternal health disparities.
