

Special Issue

Health and Social Care Policy— 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue is continuing the exemplary work published so far in the field of health and social care policy. It attempts to further promote the exchange and advancement of knowledge and expertise on specific subjects within the domains of healthcare and social policy. Issues of needs assessments for vulnerable health and social populations, the development and implementation of quality improvement strategies for health and social care services, and engaging in the most recent technological initiatives are some of the issues to be addressed in this Special Issue.
