

Special Issue

Healthcare Economics, Management, and Innovation for Health Systems

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to explore innovative approaches and evidence-based strategies that enhance healthcare efficiency, affordability and accessibility. We welcome contributions that examine cost-effectiveness analyses, healthcare financing, digital health innovations, policy evaluations and managerial strategies in various healthcare settings.

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Health economics and cost-effectiveness studies;
- Healthcare management and operational efficiency;
- Public health policy and its impact on population health;
- Health equity and access to care;
- The role of digital health and artificial intelligence in healthcare decision-making.
