

Special Issue

Health Promotion and Chronic Illness: Future Challenges and Opportunities

Message from the Guest Editor

We are pleased to invite you to contribute papers on primary and secondary research projects on future challenges and opportunities in health promotion in chronic illness settings. Specifically, this Special Issue will show the essential role of health promotion in chronic disease care and the positive impact of healthy behaviors on chronic illness patients' outcomes at every stage in their illness. For this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following: primary studies, of both qualitative and quantitative design, or secondary research using different review methodologies, regarding health promotion and/or chronic illness. I look forward to receiving your contributions.
