

Special Issue

Health Priorities and COVID-19

Message from the Guest Editors

It is our pleasure to invite you to submit your articles to this Special Issue, which is aimed at disseminating evidence on the interplay between COVID-19 and pre-existing public health priorities. This Special Issue aims to disseminate data on the progress made in disease control efforts since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. This includes interventions that were adapted to comply with the COVID-19 restrictions and interventions that were tailored to incorporate measures against COVID-19. In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. The research areas may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Tropical diseases;
- Vaccine-preventable diseases;
- Non-communicable diseases;
- Injury and violence.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
