Improving Quality of Life in Lupus Patients

Message from the Guest Editor

Healthcare invites manuscript submissions related to the improvement of quality of life of lupus patients. All manuscripts should be submitted online using the submission site by 30 July 2021. All submissions will undergo a rigorous peer review. We encourage submissions of original research articles, reviews, and perspectives. Suggested topic areas include, among others:

- Disease management and healthcare resource approaches
- Treatment adherence and quality of life outcomes
- Strategies to reduce cost burden for patients with severe flares and more major organ involvement
- Recommendations for racial and ethnic minorities, the poor, and those lacking medical insurance and/or education
- Interventions to address the impacts of:
 - inpatient hospitalizations
 - long disease duration
 - high disease activity and damage
 - poor physical and mental health
 - low education and employment levels
