Innovations in Hematologic Oncology: SOHO Italy Perspectives

Message from the Guest Editors

The Society of Hematologic Oncology Italy—SOHO ITALY—is bringing together leading SOHO experts and top international researchers in acute leukemias, MPDs and MDSs, lymphomas, multiple myeloma, and rare diseases, aiming to consolidate the Italian Hematology–SOHO partnership. The aim of the association is the integration of the clinical–scientific activities of IRST IRCCS and MD Anderson Cancer Center and the improvement of the clinical–therapeutic approach to patients with hematologic malignancies. The society SOHO ITALY is represented by the Presidents C. Cerchione, G. Martinelli (IRST IRCCS), and Hagop Kantarjian (MD Anderson Cancer Center), as well as the other founders and members of the Scientific Board N. Daver, E. Jabbour, and Marina Konopleva (MD Anderson Cancer Center). We establish this Special Issue to publish state-of-the-art papers from SOHO ITALY.
