

Special Issue

Cultural Landscape and Sustainable Heritage Tourism

Message from the Guest Editor

The goal of this Special Issue is to collect papers (original research articles and review papers) that provide insights into the actions undertaken in the field of sustainable heritage tourism, the strategies developed for innovation and tourism intelligence, and the projects aimed at linking sustainable heritage tourism with the cultural landscape. The intention is to highlight good practices and the achievement of objectives that reinforce the character of tourism and heritage sustainability.

This Special Issue will welcome manuscripts that link the following themes:

- Sustainable heritage tourism and tourism intelligence.
- Sustainable practices based on the tourist use of the cultural landscape.
- Cultural heritage as an object of responsible tourist consumption.
- New forms of heritage and sustainable tourism.
- Linking heritage and sustainable tourism to economic, cultural, social, and territorial criteria.
- Heritage tourism, sustainability, and new Information Technologies.
- Heritage, sustainability, tourism, and Geographic Information Systems.

We look forward to receiving your original research articles and reviews.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Heritage is an international, peer-reviewed, open access journal that focuses on knowledge, conservation, interpretation and management of cultural and natural heritage, by presenting and enabling novelty and advances in sensing technologies, novel methods, best practices and policies. Heritage has the ambition to become a “cultural forum”, where scientists and experts offer answers to significant issues affecting cultural and natural heritage, by creating a knowledge bridge between different technological and social disciplines. Heritage has an Editorial Board of eminent international leaders and this ensures rigorous peer-review processing for high quality and novel papers. We strongly recommend Heritage for the rapid and professional publication of your innovative research and case studies.
