YOCOCU2020 Hands on Heritage: Experiencing, Conservation, Mastering Management

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue encourages the submission of contributions presented at the 7th YOCOCU (Youth in Conservation and Cultural Heritage) Conference in Tbilisi: "Hands on Heritage: Experiencing, Conservation, Mastering Management". This edition is devoted to experiences in learning and working on real-life scenarios in the realm of the conservation and management of cultural heritage. Research articles addressing the following (not exhaustive) list of topics are welcomed:

- Archaeological heritage between conservation and management
- New strategies in conservation and valorization of archaeological sites and buildings
- Archaeological research and cultural landscape
- Architectural restoration and conservation: approaches and case studies
- Public archaeology
- Remote sensing for archaeology and cultural heritage management
- Natural risk assessment for the protection of cultural heritage and landscape
- Remote and in-situ sensing technologies for the conservation and interpretation of monuments

From 1 June 2021 to 31 August 2021, all submissions (once accepted after peer review) to Heritage will be waived APC, please kindly submit your paper before this deadline.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Heritage is an international, peer-reviewed, open access journal that focuses on knowledge, conservation, interpretation and management of cultural and natural heritage, by presenting and enabling novelty and advances in sensing technologies, novel methods, best practices and policies. Heritage has the ambition to become a “cultural forum”, where scientists and experts offer answers to significant issues affecting cultural and natural heritage, by creating a knowledge bridge between different technological and social disciplines. Heritage has an Editorial Board of eminent international leaders and this ensures rigorous peer-review processing for high quality and novel papers. We strongly recommend Heritage for the rapid and professional publication of your innovative research and case studies.
