Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

For this Special Issue on Feature Reviews in “Medicinal, Herbs, and Specialty Crops”, we welcome full reviews, mini-reviews, and opinion articles related to wild and domesticated species considered relevant as herbs, botanicals, and any other special use in horticulture, including the utilization of their residues for their bioactive compounds. Reviews featuring wild harvesting, propagation techniques, cultivation methods, advanced production techniques, value chain establishment, and waste and byproduct utilizations are welcome. Issues related to biodiversity, phylogenetic resources, conservation, and breeding may also be presented.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Horticultural plants and their products provide sustenance, health, and beauty. A confluence of factors is putting increasing pressure on horticultural production to evolve, and innovative research is addressing these challenges. Horticulturae provides a venue to communicate research results in a rapid manner with open access, allowing everyone the opportunity to stay abreast of leading research addressing horticulture. I invite you to consider publishing the results of your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed journal.
