Message from the Guest Editor

We are organizing a Special Issue on alcohol consumption, adverse health outcomes and public health implications. The aim of this Special Issue is to inform the readers about the most recent research findings regarding the relationship between alcohol consumption and adverse health outcomes. Research papers and reviews are both welcome. Other accepted manuscript formats include position papers, brief reports and commentaries. Potential topics of interest include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Alcohol consumption and all-cause and cause-specific mortality;
2. Alcohol consumption and chronic disease risk;
3. Alcohol consumption and adiposity;
4. Factors associated with alcohol consumption;
5. Alcohol consumption during COVID-19 pandemic;
6. Alcohol consumption and implications for public health.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Discovery and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a scientific basis for decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards. IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed, open access journal.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Embase, GEOBASE, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: CiteScore - Q1 (Public Health, Environmental and Occupational Health)
