Message from the Guest Editor

I would like to invite you to submit a contribution to a Special Issue on "Correlation between Food and Oral Health: Prevention, Diagnosis, and Management of Linked Pathologies" to the International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health.

This Special Issue welcomes manuscripts that contribute to better understanding the pathology, etiology, diagnosis, prevention, and management of oral pathologies linked to diet and eating disorders.

Adopting multi-, inter-, and trans-disciplinary perspectives, expected submissions can include, but are not limited to, the following topics:

- Oral health and diet
- Oral health and eating disorders
- Oral health and food
- Oral health and nutrition
- Oral pathology and malnutrition
- Oral pathology due to eating disorders
- Oral pathology and vitamin deficiencies

All original articles, case reports, case series, and review articles will be accepted. We hope you will contribute your high-quality research and we look forward to hearing from you.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Discovery and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a scientific basis for decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards. IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed, open access journal.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Embase, GEOBASE, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.
