Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue invites contributions to address the questions of whether and how healthcare policy shapes population health. Contributions are invited that address this question at the conceptual level and/or through empirical analysis. We welcome country and regional case studies of the link between health policy reform and population health, as well as comparative papers.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Discovery and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a scientific basis for decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards. IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed, open access journal.
