Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue of the International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health (IJERPH) is inviting papers proposing new methods and tools for assessing motor competence in special populations, with a particular interest in promoting social inclusion and enhancing participation in organized physical and sport activity programs. Cutting-edge research papers, case reports, conference papers and reviews reviewing the actual state of the art on this topic are welcome.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Discovery and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a scientific basis for decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards. IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed, open access journal.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Embase, GEOBASE, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.
