Message from the Collection Editor

Dear Colleagues,

This Collection will have a broad focus on women's health, but especially its role in reproduction, pregnancy and childbirth. Contraceptive use, abortion services and issues of abuse and violence are welcome. Articles that discuss quality of care for women, dignity and respect for women, women's sexuality and women's reproductive mental health are also welcome. We are also looking for articles that provide an overview of women's reproductive health in specific settings, for specific groups or specific services. Articles with policy relevance are important.
