

Special Issue

Perspectives in Behavioral and Mental Health

Message from the Guest Editor

The goal of this Special Issue of IJERPH is to collect and publish science-driven innovative perspectives in behavioral and mental health. The particular focus is on public health and the environment, emphasizing innovative research aimed at examining the nature and magnitude of the interaction of public health and environmental research with behavioral and mental health issues.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Scientific discoveries and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a rational basis for informed decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards.

IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality peer-reviewed journal.
