

Special Issue

Global Health: An Unique and Comprehensive Perspective

Message from the Guest Editor

We would like to invite you to send contributions to the special issue of IJERHP entitled “Global Health: A Unique and Comprehensive Perspective”. The aim of this issue is to collect manuscripts which can add knowledge and experiences in the field of One Health. We will give priority to papers with an integrated multidisciplinary approach in the surveillance of Public Health phenomena. A particular focus is aimed at the management of Big Data, which can give an important contribution to the general improvement of passive surveillance and to the development of predictive models on the diseases’ insurgence and diffusion. More generally, we will consider contributions on the use of new technologies in diseases surveillance and control.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Scientific discoveries and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a rational basis for informed decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards.

IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality peer-reviewed journal.
