

Special Issue

Headaches

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will be dedicated to Headaches. Different approaches from disability, functioning, burden, social aspects, non-drug approaches, and trauma-related complaints will be evaluated in different settings. The public health implications of all these reviews will be the fil rouge of the thematic series. The international and multidisciplinary panel of experts will guarantee the global coverage of all themes.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Scientific discoveries and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a rational basis for informed decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards.

IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality peer-reviewed journal.
