

Special Issue

Bioaccessibility and Bioavailability of Bioactive Compounds

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue of the International Journal of Molecular Sciences entitled: “Bioaccessibility and bioavailability of bioactive compounds” aims to reflect the state of the art in current research on the absorption, distribution, metabolism and excretion of compounds that can exert a positive effect on health. In addition, this Special Issue aims to point out future challenges in this field. Researchers can contribute with original articles or high-quality reviews, so as to advance knowledge on the bioavailability of bioactive compounds and their impact on health events.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, and molecular biophysics. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, MEDLINE, Embase, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q1 (Biochemistry and Molecular Biology) / CiteScore - Q1 (Organic Chemistry)
