Natural Compounds for Counteracting GI and Liver Diseases

Message from the Guest Editors

The Special Issue entitled "Natural Compounds for Counteracting GI and Liver Diseases" focuses on the role of natural compounds in promoting gastrointestinal (GI) and liver health. It aims to collect research articles, reviews, and perspectives that highlight the pharmacological potential of naturally derived substances to prevent and treat GI and hepatic disorders. This Special Issue aims to bridge the gap between traditional medicine and modern molecular science, providing a comprehensive overview of how natural compounds can be harnessed to improve gastrointestinal and liver health.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
