Advances in Molecular Approaches to Asthma Management

Message from the Guest Editors

We warmly invite you to contribute to the Special Issue “Advances in Molecular Approaches to Asthma Management” in this prestigious journal. Our understanding of the mechanisms of asthma has deepened significantly over the years, enabling more precise treatment for patients. We encourage the contribution of spontaneous research, literature reviews, meta-analyses, and clinical cases, in order to enrich the body of knowledge on this subject matter. We particularly welcome in-depth discussions on less-explored issues and mechanisms concerning the efficacy of biological drugs, inhalers, and emerging therapeutic strategies for asthmatic patients. We also invite contributions that address the various treatable traits of asthmatic subjects, with special attention to inflammatory profiles and potential targeted therapeutic solutions.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
