Advances in the Molecular Mechanisms of Abscisic Acid and Gibberellins Functions in Plants 2.0

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue is the continuation of our previous special issue "Advances in the Molecular Mechanisms of Abscisic Acid and Gibberellins Functions in Plants". This Special issue will focus on the most recent advances in ABA and GA functions in the regulation of plant growth, development as well as in the response to abiotic stress. The submission of works reporting ABA and GA crosstalk, as well as the integration of GA and ABA action with other plant hormones and/or environmental cues are especially encouraged. Notwithstanding, contributions on other related topics aimed at understanding the molecular mechanisms of ABA and/or GA action in plants are also welcomed, including reviews and original research articles.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, and molecular biophysics. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
