Membrane Channels in Intercellular Communication

Message from the Guest Editors

The Special Issue "Membrane Channels in Intercellular Communication" aims to publish review articles and/or original papers that highlight important findings on the functions of direct cell–cell communication and the pathological consequences of connexin mutations. It will also explore hypotheses, speculations, suggestions, and ideas that can be tested experimentally.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, and molecular biophysics. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
