Immune Response to Cancer: From Tumor Onset to Therapeutic Approach

Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleague, The aim of this Special Issue is to provide an overview of recent advances in the field of “Immune Response to Cancer”. We therefore invite researchers to submit original papers and reviews to shed further light on the complex interaction between the immune system and neoplastic progression. Potential topics include (but are not limited to):

- The role of the immune system in the establishment and progression of tumor
- Immunotherapy and immuno-oncology interventions
- High dimensional profiling of the tumor immune microenvironment
- Mechanisms of immune-mediated resistance to cancer therapy
- Imaging the immune system in cancer

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
