State-of-the-Art Molecular Oncology in Poland

Message from the Guest Editor

This Topical Collection aims to highlight recent advances in cancer research in Poland, focusing on the molecular aspects of carcinogenesis and the new diagnostic/treatment approaches, based on molecular studies. To provide a comprehensive view of recent advances in cancer research in Poland, we invite researchers to submit original research papers and high-quality comprehensive reviews in the cancer research field to this Topical Collection. Potential topics include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Molecular Aspects of Carcinogenesis;
- Signaling pathways in cancer;
- Cell death evasion mechanisms in cancer;
- Single cell profiling in cancer;
- The role of microenvironment and immune system.
- Molecular Oncology in Cancer Diagnostics and Therapy
- Liquid biopsy; current advances and clinical approaches;
- New drugs/drug candidates - molecular mechanisms of functioning.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
