

Special Issue

Molecular Research for Personalized Antitumoral Therapy

Message from the Guest Editor

In this context, this Special Issue aims to cover all sectors of research based on molecular patterns for antitumoral therapy. It will include original research, review articles, and short communications on specific molecular mechanisms of antitumoral agents, including conventional chemotherapeutical drugs, novel potential antitumoral drug candidates, and their combinations with any other antitumoral modalities.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, and molecular biophysics. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
