

Special Issue

Micronutrients in Metabolic Health, 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editor

The goal of this Special Issue is to broaden the molecular understanding of the roles of micronutrients and epigenetic mechanisms, through which we hope to uncover strategies for targeting epigenetic plasticity; in the future, this may offer novel and realistic opportunities to prevent and treat obesity and related disorders. We invite authors to submit original research and review articles describing basic and translational findings, with a special focus on “Micronutrients in Metabolic Health 2.0”.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
