Special Issue

Molecular and Translational Research in Cardiovascular Endocrinology, Cardio-Metabolic Diseases and Non-Alcoholic Fatty Liver Disease (NAFLD): 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue is a continuation of the first Special Issue "Molecular and Translational Research in Cardiovascular Endocrinology, Cardio-Metabolic Diseases and Non-alcoholic Fatty Liver Disease (NAFLD)". This Special Issue, which is edited by Prof E. Kassi, As. Prof. I. Kyrou and Prof. H.S. Randeva with the aid of our Topical Advisory Panel Member Dr. Narjes Nasiri-Ansari (Department of Biochemistry, Medical School, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece), focuses on cardiometabolic diseases and endocrine-related cardiovascular diseases, including atherosclerosis, heart failure, arterial hypertension, metabolic syndrome, obesity, diabetes mellitus, chronic kidney disease, NAFLD, and dyslipidemia, ranging from the molecular and cellular pathogenetic pathways to novel pharmacological and molecular targets for relevant treatments. Original research articles and reviews on these and related topics are welcomed in this Special Issue.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
