

Special Issue

Mass Spectrometry Techniques for Biomarker Discovery

Message from the Guest Editors

In this Special Issue, we would like to invite scientists to share novel mass-spectrometry-based techniques and applications of methods to discover and validate biomarkers for diseases. The topics include advanced sample preparation methods compatible with downstream MS analysis, target or comprehensive omics investigation, fundamental MS technique development which benefits the determination of biomarkers, and new methods in improving MS data analysis. Original and review articles that focus on the topics mentioned above and studies applying robust MS-based methods to biomarkers analysis are all welcome.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.
