In this Special Issue, we seek high-quality submissions of original research articles as well as review articles on all aspects related to dam engineering that has the potential for practical application. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Gravity, arch, RCC, CFRD, embankment, and rockfill dams;
- New construction materials and mixture design;
- Material behavior and constitutive models for concrete, soil, and rock;
- Advanced design techniques with optimized geometry;
- Recent case studies and reported dam failures (i.e., lessons learned);
- Dam safety and security, risk-informed decision making, and failure modes;
- Quantification of various hazard sources (e.g., earthquake, flood, aging);
- Advanced numerical analysis techniques;
- Validations and verifications of the existing analysis techniques;
- Monitoring, surveillance, and field measurement methods; and
- Advances in sustainable and resilient dams, as well as socio-economical aspects.
