Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Coronary artery disease (CAD) is one of the most common causes of death worldwide in both men and women. There has been significant progress in the field of CAD from diagnosis to therapy, resulting in improved cardiovascular outcomes. The goal of this Special Issue is to update the practicing clinician on the current strategies for diagnosis and treatment and the most recent advances in the field of coronary artery diseases.

To this end, we would like to invite state-of-the-art reviews, editorials, and original research in this area for inclusion in this Special Issue.

We look forward to your submissions!
