

Special Issue

Novel Developments in Dental and Oral Surgery

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue highlights groundbreaking advancements in dental and oral surgical techniques, technologies, and treatment protocols. With rapid innovations in minimally invasive procedures, biomaterials, and digital dentistry, this collection aims to bridge the gap between research and clinical practice. We seek to compile high-impact studies that demonstrate improved patient outcomes, enhanced precision, and reduced recovery times in oral surgery. We welcome original research articles and review papers focusing on the following topics:

- Advanced implantology and bone regeneration techniques;
- Robotic-assisted and computer-guided oral surgeries;
- Novel biomaterials for tissue engineering and wound healing;
- Management of complex craniofacial reconstructions;
- Innovations in anesthesia and pain control protocols.

This Special Issue will provide clinicians with evidence-based insights to refine surgical approaches and adopt emerging technologies in daily practice.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

There has been an explosion of gene and target based research and therapeutics in the multitude of fields that compose clinical medicine. The Journal of Clinical Medicine's (JCM) staff and editorial board are dedicated to providing cutting edge, timely, and peer-reviewed articles covering the diverse subspecialties of clinical medicine. The journal publishes concise, innovative, and exciting research articles as well as clinically significant articles and reviews that are pertinent to the myriad of disciplines within medicine. The articles published are relevant to both primary care physicians and specialists. The journal's full-texts are archived in PubMed Central and indexed in PubMed. Please consider submitting your manuscripts for publication to our journal and check us out on-line!
