Current Trends in Abdominal Surgery

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue, entitled “Current Trends in Abdominal Surgery,” aims to present and disseminate recent developments and emerging perspectives in this rapidly evolving field. We welcome original research articles, reviews, and clinical studies addressing contemporary surgical techniques, innovations in minimally invasive and robotic surgery, abdominal wall and gastrointestinal procedures, perioperative optimization, and enhanced recovery strategies. Contributions exploring the role of artificial intelligence, advanced imaging, digital technologies, and surgical simulation in supporting clinical decision-making and surgical training are particularly encouraged. Topics of interest for publication include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Minimally invasive abdominal surgery (laparoscopic and robotic approaches);
- Innovations in gastrointestinal surgery;
- Hepato-pancreato-biliary surgery;
- Enhanced Recovery After Surgery (ERAS) protocols in abdominal procedures;
- Artificial intelligence and digital technologies in abdominal surgery.
