Innovations in Surgical and Medical Approaches of Urologic Oncology

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue, entitled "Innovations in Surgical and Medical Approaches in Urologic Oncology", aims to highlight cutting-edge advancements transforming the diagnosis, treatment, and management of urologic cancers, including prostate, bladder, kidney, and testicular malignancies. We aim to explore minimally invasive and robotic-assisted surgical techniques that enhance precision and reduce recovery times, alongside emerging technologies like image-guided interventions and artificial intelligence for tumor detection. With this Special Issue, we also aim to review novel systemic therapies, including targeted agents, immunotherapies, and personalized treatment strategies based on molecular profiling. Additionally, we aim to address challenges in optimizing oncologic outcomes while preserving patients' quality of life, such as nerve-sparing procedures and fertility preservation. By integrating clinical research with practical applications, we hope that this Special Issue will provide valuable insights for urologists, oncologists, and researchers striving to improve patient care in urologic oncology.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

There has been an explosion of gene and target based research and therapeutics in the multitude of fields that compose clinical medicine. The Journal of Clinical Medicine's (JCM) staff and editorial board are dedicated to providing cutting edge, timely, and peer-reviewed articles covering the diverse subspecialties of clinical medicine. The journal publishes concise, innovative, and exciting research articles as well as clinically significant articles and reviews that are pertinent to the myriad of disciplines within medicine. The articles published are relevant to both primary care physicians and specialists. The journal's full-texts are archived in PubMed Central and indexed in PubMed. Please consider submitting your manuscripts for publication to our journal and check us out on-line!
